HOUSING

Inalco is generally able to provide exchange students with student housing in external residences (CIUP/CROUS/ALJT), within the Paris city limits. Prices range from €420 to €600, a price much lower than the average price of housing on the private market. However, please note that housing cannot be guaranteed.

Students wishing to apply for one of these residences must include this information in their online application form.

COST OF LIVING

Taking into account food, accommodation, transport, leisure, etc. the cost of living in France can be high, especially in Paris. Each student's budget depends highly on their lifestyle, however the average estimated monthly budget is 900€ - 1300€.

HEALTH INSURANCE

EU students: EU students must get a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), covering them during their whole stay in France. For a full coverage, it is recommended to subscribe to additional health insurance.

Non-EU students:

- Non-EU students must get, before departure, an international health insurance covering them during their whole stay in France.
- In addition to this international health insurance, it is highly recommended to register to the French Social Security (free of charge): <https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/>

VISA

- EU students do not need a visa.
- Non-EU students will have to apply for a visa: please contact the nearest French Embassy or Consulate to get all the corresponding details.
