Apartments are inspected prior to arrival to ensure the previous tenant has followed the cleaning instructions. During the tenancy the tenant is required to keep the apartment clean and in good condition.

Home insurance is compulsory, and the tenant must provide proof of valid insurance within two months of moving in. The tenant is liable for damages from the 1st day of the tenancy.

Home insurance provides compensation to the landlord (University of Helsinki Funds) if you, as the policyholder, accidentally cause damage to the property. You will usually take out a policy with an insurance company, many of which cooperate with banks.

Further details and information for a good, safe and relaxed stay in Vuolukiventie rental apartments will be provided when you become a tenant.
